Making of

of election

41. A contract whereby any expenses are incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of an election shall not be enforceable against a candidate at such election, unless made by the candidate himself or by his election agent; provided that the inability under this article to enforce such contract against the candidate shall not relieve the candidate from the consequences of any corrupt or illegal practice committed by his agent.

Payment of expenses through election agent.

42. (1) Except as permitted by or in pursuance of this Ordinance, no payment and no advance or deposit shall be made by a candidate at an election, or by any agent on behalf of the candidate, or by any other person, whether before, during or after such election, in respect of any expenses incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, otherwise than by or through the election agent of the candidate; and all money provided by any person other than the candidate for any expenses incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of the election, whether as gift, loan, advance or deposit, shall be paid to the candidate or his election agent and not otherwise; provided that this article shall not be deemed to apply to any sum disbursed by any person out of his own money for any small expense legally incurred by himself, if such sum is not repaid to him.

(2) A person who makes any payment, advance, or deposit in contravention of this article or pays in contravention of this article any money so provided as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

for election expenses.
*Amended by:

(2) Every claim against a candidate at an election or his election agent in respect of any expenses incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, which is not sent in to the election agent within the time limited by this Ordinance, shall be barred and shall not be paid; and subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Ordinance, an election agent who pays a claim in contravention of this article shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3) Except as by this Ordinance permitted, the time limited by this Ordinance for sending in claims shall be fourteen days after the day on which the candidate returned is declared elected.

(4) All expenses incurred by or on behalf of a candidate at an election, which are incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, shall be paid within the time limited by this Ordinance and not otherwise; and, subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Ordinance, an election agent who makes a payment in contravention of this provision shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(5) Except as by this Ordinance permitted, the time limited by this Ordinance for the payment of such expenses as aforesaid shall be twenty-eight days after the day on which the candidate returned is declared elected.

(6) Where it has been proved to the satisfaction of the court by a candidate that any payment made by an election agent in contravention of this article was made without the sanction or connivance of such candidate, the election of such candidate shall not be void, nor shall he be subject to any incapacity under this Ordinance by reason only of such payment having been made in contravention of this article.

(7) If the election agent in the case of any claim sent in to him within the time limited by this Ordinance disputes it, or refuses or fails to pay it within the said period of twenty-eight days, such claim shall be deemed to be a disputed claim.

(8) The claimant may, if he thinks fit, bring an action for a disputed claim in the competent civil court; and any sum paid by the candidate or his agent in pursuance of the judgment or order of such court shall be deemed to be paid within the time limited by his Ordinance, and to be an exception from the provisions of this Ordinance requiring claims to be paid by the election agent.

(9) On cause shown to the satisfaction of the competent civil court, the court on application by the claimant or by the candidate or his election agent may, by order, give leave for the payment by a candidate or his election agent of a disputed claim, or of a claim for any such expenses as aforesaid, although sent in after the time in this article mentioned for sending in claims; or although the same was sent in to the candidate and not to the election agent.

(10) Any sum specified in any such order may be paid by the candidate or his election agent, and when paid in pursuance of such leave shall be deemed to be paid within the time limited by this Ordinance.

Remuneration of election agent.

44. So far as circumstances admit, this Ordinance shall apply to a claim for his remuneration by an election agent and to the payment thereof in like manner as if he were any other creditor, and if any difference arises respecting the amount of such claim, the claim shall be a disputed claim within the meaning of this Ordinance, and be dealt with accordingly.

Personal expenses of candidate and petty expenses.
Amended by:
XIII. 1983.5.

45. (1) The candidate at an election may pay any personal expenses incurred by him on account of or in connection with or incidental to such election to an amount not exceeding twelve liri, but any further personal expenses so incurred by him shall be paid by his election agent.

(5) A statement of the particulars of payments made by any person so authorized shall be sent to the election agent within the time limited by this Ordinance for the sending in of claims, and shall be vouched for by a bill containing the receipt of that person.

Provided that there shall not be included in such amount any expenditure incurred by the candidate for his personal expenses, nor the fee, if any, paid to the election agent not exceeding one hundred liri.

(2) In the case of candidates standing for election in the same division as members of the same political party, the expenses of such candidates may be added together and there shall not be deemed to have been a contravention of this article unless the aggregate expenses of such candidates, when added together, exceed either the sum of six hundred liri multiplied by the number of such candidates or the sum of three thousand liri, whichever is the smaller: provided that if the aggregate of such expenses exceeds either of the sums aforesaid, the expenses of each such candidate shall be separated from the expenses of the others and the provisions of subarticle (1) shall apply.

(3) Any candidate or election agent who knowingly acts in contravention of this article shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

47. (1) No payment or contract for payment shall, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate at any election, be made -

Provided that where it is the ordinary business of a voter as an advertising agent or publisher to exhibit for payment bills and advertisements, a payment to or contract with such voter, if made in the ordinary course of business, shall not be deemed to be an illegal practice within the meaning of this article.

48. (1) No person shall, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate at any election, be engaged or employed for payment or promise of payment for any purpose or in any capacity whatever, except for the purposes or in the capacities following:

Saving for creditors.

49. The provisions of this Ordinance prohibiting certain payments and contracts for payments, and the payment of any sum, and the incurring of any expense in excess of a certain maximum, shall not affect the right of any creditor, who, when the contract was made or the expense was incurred, was ignorant of the same being in contravention of this Ordinance.

EXCUSE FOR CORRUPT AND ILLEGAL PRACTICES

58. The election of a candidate, who has been guilty, by his agents, of the offence of treating and undue influence, and illegal practice, or of any such offences, in reference to such election shall not, by reason of such offences, be declared void, nor shall the candidate be subject to any incapacity under this Ordinance, if the court is satisfied after giving the Attorney General an opportunity of being heard that the candidate has proved -

Reasons exonerating candidates in certain cases of corrupt and illegal practice by agents.
Amended by:
LVIII.1974.68;
L.N. 148 of 1975.

- (a) that no corrupt or illegal practice was committed at such election by the candidate or his election agent and the offences aforesaid were committed contrary to the orders and without the sanction or connivance of such candidate or his election agent; and
- (b) that such candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt and illegal practices at such election; and
- (c) that the offences aforesaid were of a trivial, unimportant and limited character; and
- (d) that in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt or illegal practice on the part of such candidate and of his agents.

Power of court to except innocent act
from being illegal practice, etc.
Amended by:
LVIII.1974.68;
L.N. 148 of 1975.

59. Where, in any proceedings, it is shown to the court by such evidence as seems to the court sufficient -

- (a) that any act or omission of a candidate at any election, or of his election agent or of any other agent or person, would, by reason of being the payment of a sum or the incurring of expense in excess of any maximum amount allowed by this Ordinance, or of being a payment, engagement, employment, or contract in contravention of this Ordinance, or of otherwise being in contravention of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, be but for this article an illegal practice; and
- (b) that any such act or omission arose from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculation or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case, did not arise from any want of good faith, and under the circumstances it seems to the court, after giving the Attorney General an opportunity of being heard, to be just that the candidate at the said election and other agent and person or any of them, should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Ordinance, the court may allow such act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Ordinance which would otherwise make the same an illegal practice, and thereupon such candidate, agent, or person shall not be subject to any of the consequences under this Ordinance of the said act or omission.

Authorized excuse for non-compliance with provisions as to return and declaration
respecting election expenses.
Amended by:
LVIII. 1974.68;
L.N. 148 of 1975.

60. (1) Where the return and declarations respecting election expenses of a candidate at an election have not been transmitted as required by this Ordinance, or being transmitted contain some error or false statement, then -

- (a) if the candidate in any criminal or civil proceedings under this Ordinance proves to the satisfaction of the court that the failure to transmit such return and declarations, or any of them or any part thereof, or any error or false statement therein, has arisen by reason of his illness or of the absence, death, illness or misconduct of his election agent or of any clerk or officer of such agent, or by reason of inadvertence, or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the candidate; or
- (b) if the election agent of the candidate proves to the satisfaction of the court that the failure to transmit the return and declarations which he was required to transmit or any part thereof, or any error or false statement therein, arose by reason of his illness or of the death or illness of any prior election agent of the candidate or of the absence, death, illness or misconduct of any clerk or officer of an election agent of the candidate, or by reason of inadvertence or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the election agent, the court may, after giving the Attorney General an opportunity of being heard, make such order for allowing an authorized excuse for the failure to transmit such return and declarations, or for an error or false statement in such return and declarations, as to the court seems just.

(2) Where in any proceedings it appears to the court that any person being or having been election agent has refused or failed to make such return or to supply such particulars as will enable the candidate and his election agent, respectively, to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance as to the return and declaration respecting election expenses, the court, before making an order allowing the excuse as in this article mentioned, shall order such person to appear, and shall, unless he attends, and shows cause to the contrary, order him to make the return and declaration, or to deliver a statement of the particulars required to be contained in the return, as to the court seems just, and to make or deliver the same within such time and to such person and in such manner as the court may direct, or may order him to be examined with respect to such particulars, and in default of compliance with any such order, such person shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3) The court may allow the excuse conditionally upon the making of a return and declaration in a modified form or within an extended time, and upon the compliance with such other terms as to the court, seem best calculated for carrying into effect the objects of this Ordinance; and an order allowing an authorized excuse shall relieve the candidate or the election agent, as the case may be, from any liability or consequences under this Ordinance in respect of the matter excused by the order; and where it is proved by the candidate to the court that any act or omission of the election agent in relation to the return and declaration respecting election expenses was without the sanction or connivance of the candidate and that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing such act or omission, the court shall relieve the candidate from the consequences of such act or omission on the part of his election agent.

(4) The date of the order, or if conditions and terms are to be complied with, the date at which the applicant fully complies with them, is referred to in this Ordinance as the date of the allowance of the excuse.
