Chapter 2: Duties of Financial Intermediaries

Section 1: Duty of Due Diligence

Art. 3 Verification of the identity of the customer

¹ When establishing a business relationship, the financial intermediary must verify the identity of the customer on the basis of a document of evidentiary value. Where the customer is a legal entity, the financial intermediary must acknowledge the provisions regulating the power to bind the legal entity, and verify the identity of the persons who enter into the business relationship on behalf of the legal entity.¹⁷

² In the case of cash transactions with a customer whose identity has not yet been identified, the duty to verify identity applies only if one transaction, or two or more transactions that appear to be connected, involve a considerable financial value.

³ Insurance institutions must verify the identity of the customer if the amount of a single premium, the regular premium or the total of the premiums involves a considerable financial value.

⁴ If in cases under paragraphs 2 or 3 there is any suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, the identity of the customer must be verified even if the relevant amounts have not been reached.¹⁸

¹⁹ Amended by Annex No. 17 of the Financial Market Supervision Act of 22 June 2007, in force since 1 Jan. 2009 (SR 956.1).

Art. 4 Establishing the identity of the beneficial owner

¹ The financial intermediary must obtain a written declaration from the customer indicating who the beneficial owner is if:

- a. the customer is not the beneficial owner or if there is any doubt about the matter;
- b. the customer is a domiciliary company;
- c. a cash transaction of considerable financial value in terms of Article 3 paragraph 2 is being carried out.

² In the case of collective accounts or collective deposits, the financial intermediary must require the customer to provide a complete list of the beneficial owners and to give notice of any change to the list without delay.

Art. 5 Repetition of the verification of the identity of the customer or the establishment of the identity of the beneficial owner

¹ If doubt arises in the course of the business relationship as to the identity of the customer or of the beneficial owner, the verification of identity or establishment of identity in terms of Articles 3 and 4 respectively must be repeated.

² In the case of an insurance policy that may be surrendered, the insurance institution must also re-establish the identity of the beneficial owner if, in the event of a claim or the surrender of the policy, the person entitled to benefit is not the same person identified at the time that the insurance contract was concluded.

Art. 6²⁰ Duty to clarify

¹ The financial intermediary is required to identify the nature and purpose of the business relationship wanted by the customer. The extent of the information that must be obtained is determined by the risk represented by the customer.

² The financial intermediary must clarify the economic background and the purpose of a transaction or of a business relationship if:

- a. it appears unusual, unless its legality is clear;
- b. there are indications that assets are the proceeds of a felony or are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation (Art. 260^{ter} No. 1 SCC²¹) or serve the financing of terrorism (Art. 260^{quinquies} para. 1 SCC).

Art. 7 Duty to keep records

¹ The financial intermediary must keep records of transactions carried out and of clarifications required under this Act in such a manner that other specially qualified persons are able to make a reliable assessment of the transactions and business relationships and of compliance with the provisions of this Act.

² The financial intermediary must retain the records in such a manner as to be able to respond within a reasonable time to any requests made by the prosecution authorities for information or for the seizure of assets.

³ After the termination of the business relationship or after completion of the transaction, the financial intermediary must retain the records for a minimum of ten years.

Art. 7a²² Assets of low value

The financial intermediary may dispense with complying with the duties of due diligence (Art. 3–7) if the business relationship only involves assets of low value and there is no suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Art. 8 Organisational measures

Financial intermediaries must take the measures that are required to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing in their field of business.²³ They must in particular ensure that their staff receive adequate training and that checks are carried out.

Section 2: Duties in the Event of a Suspicion of Money Laundering

Art. 9 Duty to report

¹ A financial intermediary must immediately file a report with the Money Laundering Reporting Office Switzerland (“the Reporting Office”) as defined in Article 23 if it:

- a. knows or has reasonable grounds to suspect that assets involved in the business relationship:
 1. are connected to an offence in terms of Article 260^{ter} Number 1 or 305^{bis} SCC²⁴,
 2. are the proceeds of a felony,
 3. are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation, or
 4. serve the financing of terrorism (Art. 260^{quinquies} para. 1 SCC);
- b. terminates negotiations aimed at establishing a business relationship because of a reasonable suspicion as defined in letter a.²⁵

²² Inserted by No. 14 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361 367; BBl 2007 6269).

²⁴ SR 311.0

^{1bis} The name of the financial intermediary must appear in any report in accordance with paragraph 1. The identity of the financial intermediary's staff who are in charge of the case may be made anonymous in the report, provided it is guaranteed that the Reporting Office and the competent prosecution authority are able to contact them without delay.²⁶

² Lawyers and notaries are not subject to the duty to report insofar as they are bound in their activities by professional secrecy in terms of Article 321 SCC.

Art. 10 Freezing of assets

¹ A financial intermediary must immediately freeze the assets entrusted to it that are connected with the report filed under Article 9.²⁷

² It must continue to freeze the assets until it receives an order from the competent prosecution authority, but at the most for five working days from the time at which the report is filed with the Reporting Office.

³ ...²⁸

Art. 10a²⁹ Prohibition of information

¹ For as long as assets are frozen by decision of the financial intermediary, that intermediary is prohibited from informing the persons affected or third parties of the report under Article 9.

² If the financial intermediary itself is unable to freeze the assets, it may inform the financial intermediary that is able to do so and which is subject to this Act.

³ It may also inform another financial intermediary subject to this Act that a report has been submitted under Article 9 provided this is required in order to comply with obligations under this Act and provided both financial intermediaries:

- a. provide joint services for one customer in connection with the management of that customer's assets on the basis of a contractual agreement to cooperate; or
- b. are part of the same corporate group.

²⁵ Amended by No. 14 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361 367; BBl 2007 6269).

²⁶ Inserted by No. 14 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361 367; BBl 2007 6269).

²⁷ Amended by No. 14 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361 367; BBl 2007 6269).

²⁸ Repealed by No. 14 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, with effect from 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361 367; BBl 2007 6269).

⁴ The financial intermediary who has been informed on the basis of paragraph 2 or 3 is subject to the prohibition of information in paragraph 1.

Art. 11³⁰ Exclusion of criminal and civil liability

¹ Anyone who in good faith files a report under Article 9 of this Act or who freezes assets in accordance with Article 10 may not be prosecuted for a breach of official, profession or trade secrecy or be held liable for breach of contract.

² This exclusion of prosecution and liability also applies to financial intermediaries that file a report under Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC³¹ or to self-regulatory organisations that file a report under Article 27 paragraph 4.

Section 3.:³² Provision of Information

Art. 11a

¹ If the Reporting Office requires additional information in order to analyse a report that it has received in accordance with Article 9 of this Act or Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC³³, the financial intermediary making the report must on request provide such information that is in its possession.

² If, based on this analysis, it becomes apparent that in addition to the financial intermediary making the report, other financial intermediaries are or were involved in a transaction or business relationship, the financial intermediaries involved must on request provide the Reporting Office with all related information that is in their possession.

³ The Reporting Office shall specify a deadline for the provision of information by the financial intermediaries concerned under paragraphs 1 and 2.

⁴ The financial intermediaries are subject to the prohibition of information under Article 10a paragraph 1.

⁵ The exclusion of criminal and civil liability under Article 11 applies by analogy.

³⁰ Amended by No. 14 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361 367; BBl 2007 6269).

Section 2: Cooperation with Foreign Authorities

Art. 30⁷⁹ Cooperation with foreign reporting offices

¹ The Reporting Office may pass on the personal data and other information that are in its possession or that it may obtain under this Act to a foreign reporting office provided that office:

- a. guarantees that it will use the information solely for the purpose of analysis in the context of combating money laundering and its predicate offences, organised crime or terrorist financing;
- b. guarantees that it will reciprocate on receipt of a similar request from Switzerland;
- c. guarantees that official and professional secrecy will be preserved;
- d. guarantees that it will not pass on the information received to third parties without the express consent of the Reporting Office; and
- e. will comply with the conditions and restrictions imposed by the Reporting Office.

² It may pass on the following information in particular:

- a. the name of the financial intermediary, provided the anonymity is preserved of the person making the report or who has complied with a duty to provide information under this Act;
- b. account holders, account numbers and account balances;
- c. beneficial owners;
- d. details of transactions.

³ Information is passed on in the form of a report.

⁴ The Reporting Office may consent to information being passed on by the foreign reporting office to a third authority provided the latter guarantees that:

- a. it will use the information solely:
 1. for the purpose of analysis in the context of combating money laundering and its predicate offences, organised crime or terrorist financing, or
 2. to institute criminal proceedings relating to money laundering and its predicate offences, organised crime or terrorist financing or to obtain evidence in response to a request for mutual assistance relating to such criminal proceedings;
- b. they will not use the information to prosecute offences that are not offences predicate to money laundering under Swiss law;
- c. they will not use the information in evidence; and
- d. they will preserve official or professional secrecy.

⁷⁹ Amended by No I of the Federal Act of 21 June 2013, in force since 1 Nov. 2013 (AS 2013 3493; BBl 2012 6941).

⁵ If the request to pass on the information to a foreign third authority concerns a matter that is the subject of criminal proceedings in Switzerland, the Reporting Office shall first obtain the consent of the public prosecutor's office responsible for the proceedings.

⁶ The Reporting Office is entitled to make more detailed arrangements on the modalities of cooperation with foreign reporting offices.

Art. 31⁸⁰ Refusal to provide information

A request for information from a foreign reporting office shall not be granted if:

- a. the request has no connection with Switzerland;
- b. the request requires the application of procedural compulsion or other measures or acts for which Swiss law stipulates mutual assistance procedures or another procedure regulated in special legislation or an international treaty;
- c. national interests or public security and order will be prejudiced.

Art. 31a⁸¹ Applicable provisions of the Federal Act of 7. October 1994 on Central Offices of the Federal Criminal Police
