Part 1 GENERAL PART

Chapter 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Scope of application of General Part of Penal Code

(1) The provisions of the General Part of the Penal Code apply to the imposition of punishments for offences provided for in the Special Part of this Code and other Acts.

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter, penal law means this Code or any other Act which prescribes a punishment for an offence.

§ 2. Basis for punishment

(1) No one shall be convicted or punished for an act which was not an offence pursuant to the law applicable at the time of the commission of the act.

(2) A person shall be punished for an act if the act comprises the necessary elements of an offence, is unlawful and the person is guilty of commission of the offence.

(3) No one shall be punished more than once for the same offence, regardless of whether the punishment is imposed in Estonia or in another state.

(4) An act shall not be declared to be an offence by analogy in law.

§ 3. Types of offences

(1) An offence is a punishable act provided for in this Code or another Act.

(2) Offences are criminal offences and misdemeanours.

(3) A criminal offence is an offence which is provided for in this Code and the principal punishment prescribed for which in the case of natural persons is a pecuniary punishment or imprisonment and in the case of legal persons a pecuniary punishment.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(4) A misdemeanour is an offence which is provided for in this Code or another Act and the principal punishment prescribed for which is a fine, detention or deprivation of driving privileges.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(5) If a person commits an act which comprises the necessary elements of both a misdemeanour and a criminal offence, the person shall be punished only for the criminal offence. If no punishment is imposed for the criminal offence, the person may be punished for the misdemeanour.

§ 4. Degrees of criminal offences

(1) Criminal offences are criminal offences in the first and in the second degree.

(2) A criminal offence in the first degree is an offence the maximum punishment prescribed for which in this Code for a natural person is imprisonment for a term of more than five years or life imprisonment. An offence of a legal person is a criminal offence in the first degree if imprisonment for a term of more than five years or life imprisonment is prescribed for the same act as maximum punishment for a natural person.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) A criminal offence in the second degree is an offence the punishment prescribed for which in this Code is imprisonment for a term of up to five years or a pecuniary punishment.

(4) Mitigation or aggravation of a punishment on the basis of the provisions of the General Part of this Code shall not alter the degree of a criminal offence.

§ 5. Temporal applicability of penal law

(1) A punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the law in force at the time of commission of the act.

(2) An Act, which precludes punishability of an act, mitigates a punishment or otherwise alleviates the situation of a person shall have retroactive effect on the person who has not been punished for this act by a judgment which has entered into force. An Act, which precludes punishability of an act, punishment by imprisonment or shortens imprisonment, shall also have retroactive effect on a person who is serving a sentence of imprisonment imposed on him or her by a judgment which has entered into force or with respect to whom the imprisonment imposed by a judgment which has entered into force is enforced. In such case the punishment is reduced to the maximum punishment prescribed for a similar act in the new Act, or if the act is no longer punishable as a criminal offence, the person shall be released from imprisonment.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) An Act which declares an act as punishable, aggravates a punishment or otherwise exacerbates the situation of a person shall not have retroactive effect.

(4) Offences against humanity and war crimes shall be punishable regardless of the time of commission of the offence.

§ 6. Territorial applicability of penal law

(1) The penal law of Estonia applies to acts committed within the territory of Estonia.

(2) The penal law of Estonia applies to acts committed on board of or against ships or aircraft registered in Estonia, regardless of the location of the ship or aircraft at the time of commission of the offence or the penal law of the country where the offence is committed.

§ 7. Applicability of penal law by reason of person concerned

[RT I 2004, 46, 329 – entry into force 01.07.2004]

(1) The penal law of Estonia applies to an act committed outside the territory of Estonia if such act constitutes a criminal offence pursuant to the penal law of Estonia and is punishable at the place of commission of the act, or if no penal power is applicable at the place of commission of the act and if:

- 1) the act is committed against a citizen of Estonia or a legal person registered in Estonia; or
- 2) the offender is a citizen of Estonia at the time of commission of the act or becomes a citizen of Estonia after the commission of the act, or if the offender is an alien who has been detained in Estonia and is not extradited.

[RT I 2004, 46, 329 – entry into force 01.07.2004]

(2) The penal law of Estonia applies:

- 1) to an act committed outside the territory of Estonia if such act constitutes a criminal offence pursuant to the penal law of Estonia and the offender is a member of the Defence Forces performing his or her duties;
- 2) to grant, acceptance or arranging receipt of bribes, or influence peddling committed outside the territory of Estonia, or to crimes which damage the financial interests of the European Union, if such act was committed by an Estonian citizen, Estonian official or a legal person registered in Estonia, or an alien who has been detained in Estonia and who is not extradited, or if such person participated therein;

[RT I, 20.12.2019, 1 – entry into force 30.12.2019]

3) joining, participating in and supporting a foreign act of aggression committed outside the territory of Estonia, if the act was committed by a person who was an Estonian citizen, a person holding an Estonian residence permit or a right of residence, or a legal person registered in Estonia at the time of the act.

[RT I, 28.04.2022, 24 – entry into force 08.05.2022]

(3) For the purposes of this Code, any assets, income and expenses covered by the European Union's budget and the budgets managed by the structural units of the European Union are regarded as the financial interests of the European Union.

[RT I, 20.12.2019, 1 – entry into force 30.12.2019]

§ 8. Applicability of penal law to acts against internationally protected legal rights

Regardless of the law of the place of commission of an act, the penal law of Estonia shall apply to any acts committed outside the territory of Estonia if punishability of the act arises from an international obligations binding on Estonia.

[RT I, 05.07.2013, 2 – entry into force 15.07.2013]

§ 9. Applicability of penal law to acts against legal rights of Estonia

(1) Regardless of the law of the place of commission of an act, the penal law of Estonia applies to acts committed outside the territory of Estonia if according to the penal law of Estonia the act is a criminal offence in the first degree and if such act:

- 1) causes damage to the life or health of the population of Estonia;
- 2) interferes with the exercise of state authority or the defence capability of Estonia; or
- 3) causes damage to the environment.

(2) Regardless of the type of the offence, the penal law of Estonia applies to acts, which damage the environment and were committed within the economic zone or on the high seas, in accordance with the requirements and rights of international maritime law established with respect to foreign vessels.

[RT I 2008, 1, 1 – entry into force 14.01.2008]

§ 10. Time of commission of act

An act is deemed to be committed at the time when the person acted or was legally required to act. The time of occurrence of the consequences shall not be taken into consideration.

§ 11. Place of commission of act

(1) An act is deemed to be committed at the place where:

- 1) the person acted;
- 2) the person was legally required to act;
- 3) the consequence which constitutes a necessary element of the offence occurred; or
- 4) according to the assumption of the person, the consequence which constitutes a necessary element of the offence should have occurred.

(2) Complicity is deemed to be committed at the place where:

- 1) the principal offender committed the criminal offence;
- 2) the accomplice acted;
- 3) the accomplice was legally required to act; or
- 4) according to the assumption of the accomplice, the consequence which constitutes a necessary element of the offence should have occurred.

(3) If an accomplice to a criminal offence committed in a foreign state commits an act in the territory of Estonia and pursuant to the penal law of Estonia such act is punishable and the act of the principal offender is punishable at the place of commission of the act, or no penal power is applicable at the place of commission of the act, the penal law of Estonia applies to the accomplice.

Chapter 2 OFFENCE

Subchapter 1 Necessary Elements of Offence

§ 12. Necessary elements of offence

(1) Necessary elements of an offence are provided for in the description of a punishable act provided for in the Special Part of this Code or another Act.

(2) The objective elements necessary to constitute an offence are the acts or omissions described by law and, in the cases provided by law, the consequences which are in a causal relation to such acts or omissions. The law may also prescribe other objective elements necessary to constitute an offence.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) The subjective elements necessary to constitute an offence are intent or negligence. Law may prescribe a motive, aim or any other subjective element necessary to constitute an offence.

§ 12¹. Proprietary damage caused by offence or extent of offence

If causing of proprietary damage is provided for as a necessary element of an offence or the extent of an offence can be determined pecuniarily, the extent of damage or offence are appraised pecuniarily as follows:

- 1) damage or extent of offence which exceeds 4000 euros is significant damage;
- 2) damage or extent of offence which exceeds 40,000 euros is major damage;
- 3) damage or extent of offence which exceeds 400,000 euros is particularly great damage.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 13. Responsibility for omission

(1) A person shall be held responsible for an omission if the person was legally required to act.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) In the case of an offence through omission, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 14. Liability of legal person

(1) In the cases provided by law, a legal person is liable for an act committed in the interests of the legal person or in breach of its legal obligations by:

- 1) its body, a member, senior official or competent representative; or
- 2) any person on the instructions of a body or person specified in clause 1 of this subsection, or due to insufficient work organisation or supervision of the legal person.

(2) Where a legal person is legally obliged to act, it is liable for failure to act on the grounds provided in subsection 1 of this section, irrespective of whether the body or person specified in subsection 1 is also legally obliged to act alongside the legal person.

(3) Prosecution of a legal person does not preclude prosecution of a natural person who committed the offence, where the law also provides for the liability of the natural person.

(4) The provisions of this section do not apply to the state, intergovernmental organisations, local authorities or legal persons in public law.

[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

§ 15. Intentional act and negligent act

(1) Only intentional acts shall be punishable as criminal offences unless a punishment for a negligent act is provided by this Code.

(2) An act is also deemed to be intentional if it comprises the necessary elements of an offence in the case of which intent is presumed with regard to the act, and negligence is deemed to be sufficient with regard to grave consequences.

(3) Intentional and negligent acts are both punishable as misdemeanours.

§ 16. Intent

(1) Intent is deliberate intent, direct intent or indirect intent.

(2) A person is deemed to have committed an act with deliberate intent if the aim of the person is to create circumstances which belong to the necessary elements of an offence and is aware that such circumstances occur or if he or she at least foresees the occurrence of such circumstances. A person is also deemed to have committed an act with deliberate intent if the person assumes that the circumstances which constitute the necessary elements of an offence are an essential prerequisite for the achievement of the aim.

(3) A person is deemed to have committed an act with direct intent if the person knowingly creates circumstances which belong to the necessary elements of an offence and wants or at least tacitly accepts the creation of the circumstances.

(4) A person is deemed to have committed an act with indirect intent if the person foresees the occurrence of circumstances which constitute the necessary elements of an offence and tacitly accepts that such circumstance may occur.

§ 17. Ignorance of circumstances which constitute necessary elements of offence

(1) A person who at the time of commission of an act is unaware of any circumstances, which constitute necessary elements of an offence, is not deemed to have committed the act intentionally. In this case, the person shall be responsible for an offence committed through negligence in the cases provided by law.

(2) A person who at the time of commission of an act erroneously assumes circumstances which would constitute the necessary elements of an offence for which a more lenient punishment is prescribed, shall be liable for an intentional offence the commission of which the person intended.

(3) Ignorance of law shall not preclude intent or negligence.

§ 18. Negligence

(1) Negligence is recklessness or carelessness.

(2) A person is deemed to have committed an act through recklessness if the person foresees the occurrence of circumstances which constitute the necessary elements of an offence but, due to inattentiveness or irresponsibility, seeks to avoid the occurrence of such circumstances.

(3) A person is deemed to have committed an act through carelessness if the person is unaware of the occurrence of a circumstance which constitutes a necessary element of an offence but should have foreseen the occurrence of the circumstance in the case of attentive and conscientious performance.

§ 19. Liability for grave consequences

A person shall be liable for grave consequences provided by law if he or she causes the consequences with at least negligence.

§ 20. Offender

Offenders are principal offenders and accomplices.

§ 21. Principal offender

(1) Principal offender is a person who commits an offence unaided or by taking advantage of another person.

(2) If at least two persons agree to commit an offence jointly, each of them shall be held liable as a principal offender (joint principal offenders). An offence is deemed to be a joint offence also if an act committed by several persons jointly and in agreement comprises the necessary elements of an offence.

§ 22. Accomplice

(1) Accomplices are abettors and aiders.

(2) An abettor is a person who intentionally induces another person to commit an intentional unlawful act.

(3) An aider is a person who intentionally provides physical, material or moral assistance to an intentional unlawful act of another person.

(4) Unless otherwise provided for in § 24 of this Code, a punishment shall be imposed on an accomplice pursuant to the same provision of law which prescribes the liability of the principal offender.

(5) In the case of an aider, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 22¹. Attempt of instigation to criminal offence, consent to proposal to commit criminal offence and agreement to commit joint criminal offence

(1) An attempt of instigation to a criminal offence, a consent to a proposal to commit a criminal offence and an agreement to commit a joint criminal offence are punishable in the case of the criminal offences provided for in Chapters 8, 9, 13, 18 and 22 and in Subchapters 2, 4 and 5 of Chapter 15 of this Code for which the maximum term of punishment of at least twelve years' imprisonment or life imprisonment is prescribed.

(2) A person is liable for the activities specified in this section only if at least one of the parties to the activities listed in subsection 1 of this section commits an additional act with the intention of promoting commencement of commission of a criminal offence.

(3) Unless otherwise provided for in § 24 of this Code, a punishment shall be imposed on a person who makes an attempt to instigate commission of a criminal offence pursuant to the same provision of the law which prescribes the liability of the principal offender.

(4) In the case of the acts specified in subsection 1 of this section, the court shall apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code or release the person from punishment on the bases provided for in subsection 2 of § 26 of this Code. [RT I 2008, 52, 289 – entry into force 01.01.2009]

§ 23. Commission of misdemeanour

In the case of a misdemeanour, only the commission thereof is punishable.

§ 24. Special personal characteristics

(1) Special personal characteristics are circumstances which constitute a necessary element of an offence prescribed in the Special Part of this Code or another Act and which describe the personal characteristics, aims or motives of an offender.

(2) If an accomplice lacks the specific personal characteristics which pursuant to law constitute prerequisites for the liability of the principal offender, the provisions of § 60 of this Code shall apply to the accomplice.

(3) Special personal characteristics provided by law which aggravate, mitigate or preclude liability apply only with regard to an offender with such special personal characteristics.

§ 25. Attempt

(1) An attempt is an intentional act the purpose of which is to commit an offence.

(2) An attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when the person, according to the person's understanding of the act, directly commences the commission of the offence.

(3) If an act is committed by taking advantage of another person, the attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when the person loses control over the events or when the intermediary directly commences the commission of the offence according to the person's understanding of the act.

(4) In the case of a joint offence, the attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when at least one of the persons directly commences the commission of the offence according to the agreement of the persons.

(5) In the case of an omission, the attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when the person fails to perform an act which is necessary for the prevention of the consequences which constitute the necessary elements of an offence.

(6) In the case of an attempt, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 25¹. Punishability of attempted misdemeanour

Attempted misdemeanour is punishable in the cases provided for in this Code or another Act. [RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 26. Impossible attempt

(1) An attempt is impossible if it cannot be completed due to the unsuitability of the object or subject of the offence or due to the unsuitability of the object or method used to commit the offence.

(2) The court may release a person from punishment or apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code if, due to his or her mental infirmity, the person does not understand that the attempt is impossible.

Subchapter 2 Preclusion of Unlawfulness

§ 27. Unlawful act

An act is unlawful if it comprises the necessary elements of an offence prescribed by law and the unlawfulness of the act is not precluded by this Code, another Act, international conventions or international customs.

§ 28. Self-defence

(1) An act is not unlawful if the person combats a direct or immediate unlawful attack against the legal rights of the person or of another person by violating the legal rights of the attacker and without exceeding the limits of self-defence.

(2) A person is deemed to have exceeded the limits of self-defence if the person with deliberate or direct intent carries out self-defence by means which are evidently incongruous with the danger arising from the attack or if the person with deliberate or direct intent causes evidently excessive damage to the attacker.

(3) An opportunity to avoid an attack or to request assistance from another person shall not preclude the right to self-defence.

§ 29. Necessity

An act is not unlawful if the person commits the act in order to avert a direct or immediate danger to the legal rights of the person or of another person, and if the means chosen by the person are necessary for the aversion of the danger and the interest protected is evidently of higher importance than the interest subject to damage. In considering interests, the importance of the legal rights, the degree of the danger by which they are threatened and the danger arising from the act shall be taken into account.

§ 30. Conflict of obligations

An act which violates a legal obligation is not unlawful if the person is to perform several legal obligations simultaneously and it is impossible to perform all of them but the person does everything in his or her power to perform the obligation which is at least as important as the obligation violated against.

§ 31. Error concerning circumstance which precludes unlawfulness

(1) An intentional act is not unlawful if, at the time of commission of the act, the person erroneously assumes circumstances which would preclude the unlawfulness of the act. In such case, the person shall be punished for an offence committed through negligence in the cases provided by law.

(2) A person who at the time of commission of an act is unaware of the circumstances which objectively preclude the unlawfulness of the act shall be held liable for an attempt. In such case, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

Subchapter 3 Guilt

§ 32. Principle of guilt

(1) A person shall be punished for an unlawful act only if the person is guilty of the commission of the act. A person is guilty of commission of an act if the person is capable of guilt and there are no circumstances provided by law which would preclude guilt.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) An offender shall be punished according to the guilt of the offender, regardless of the guilt of other offenders.

§ 33. Guilt capacity

A person is capable of guilt if, at the time of commission of the act, he or she is mentally capable and at least fourteen years of age.

§ 34. Mental capacity

A person is not mentally capable if at the time of commission of an act he or she is incapable of understanding the unlawfulness of the act or incapable to act according to such understanding due to:

- 1) mental illness;
- 2) temporary severe mental disorder;
- 3) mental disability;
- 4) feeble-mindedness; or
- 5) other severe mental disorder.

§ 35. Diminished mental capacity

If the capacity of a person to understand the unlawfulness of his or her act or to act according to such understanding is substantially diminished due to one of the reasons specified in § 34 of this Code, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 36. State of intoxication

A state of intoxication caused intentionally or through negligence shall not preclude guilt.

§ 37. Guilt capacity of legal persons

Legal persons with passive legal capacity are capable of guilt.

§ 37¹. Absence of guilt of legal persons

A legal person is deemed to have acted without guilt where an act committed by a body or person specified in subsection 1 of § 14 of this Code was inevitable for the legal person.

[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

§ 38. Absence of guilt in case of negligence

A person who commits an act through negligence is deemed to have acted without guilt if the person due to his or her mental or physical abilities is incapable of understanding what is expected of him or her or is incapable to act according to such understanding.

§ 39. Error as to unlawfulness of act

(1) A person is deemed to have acted without guilt if he or she is incapable of understanding the unlawfulness of his or her act and cannot avoid the error.

(2) If an offender is able to avoid the error, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 40. Abandonment of attempt

(1) A person is released from guilt if the person voluntarily abandons the attempt in one of the cases provided for in § 41, 42 or 43 of this Code.

(2) Voluntary abandonment of attempt shall not release from guilt for an act which comprises the necessary elements of a completed offence.

(3) A person is deemed to have abandoned an attempt voluntarily if according to the person's understanding of the act the consequences of the act may still occur but the person decides to abandon the attempt regardless of circumstances beyond the person's intention.

§ 41. Abandonment of incomplete attempt

(1) A principal offender is deemed to have abandoned an incomplete attempt if the principal offender interrupts the completion of the offence.

(2) An attempt is incomplete if the person has not yet performed all that according to the person's understanding of the act is necessary for the completion of the offence.

§ 42. Abandonment of completed attempt

(1) A principal offender is deemed to have abandoned a complete attempt if the principal offender prevents the occurrence of the consequences of the offence. If a complete attempt is not sufficient for the full commission of the act, the principal offender is deemed to have abandoned the attempt if the principal offender earnestly endeavours to prevent the occurrence of the consequences of the offence.

(2) An attempt is complete if the person according to the person's understanding of the act has performed everything in the person's power to complete the offence.

§ 43. Abandonment of attempt in case of several offenders

If several offenders participate in an attempt, the person who prevents the occurrence of the consequences of the offence is deemed to have abandoned the attempt. If the consequences occur or do not occur regardless of the conduct of an offender, the offender is deemed to have abandoned the attempt if the offender earnestly endeavours to prevent the occurrence of the consequences.

§ 43¹. Abandonment of attempt to instigate criminal offence and agreement to commit criminal offence

(1) A person having committed an attempt to instigate a criminal offence, consented to a proposal to commit a criminal offence or agreed to commit a criminal offence is released from guilt if the person voluntarily:

- 1) interrupts the instigation of another person to criminal offence and prevents the possible danger of committing the act;
- 2) abandons the consent granted for committing a criminal offence; or

3) prevents the agreed committing of a criminal offence.

(2) If a criminal offence is committed or the committing thereof is refrained from regardless of the acts of the person, the person is deemed to have abandoned it if he or she earnestly endeavours to prevent the commission of the criminal offence.

[RT I 2008, 52, 289 – entry into force 01.01.2009]

Chapter 3 TYPES AND TERMS OF PUNISHMENTS

Subchapter 1 Principal Punishments Imposed for Criminal Offences

§ 44. Pecuniary punishment

(1) For a criminal offence, the court may impose a pecuniary punishment of thirty to five hundred daily rates.

(2) The court shall calculate the daily rate of a pecuniary punishment on the basis of the average daily income of the offender. The court may reduce the daily rate due to special circumstances or increase the rate on the basis of the standard of living of the offender. The daily rate applied shall not be less than the minimum daily rate. The minimum daily rate shall be 10 euros.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) Average daily income shall be calculated on the basis of the income subject to income tax received by the offender during the year immediately preceding the year in which criminal proceedings were commenced against the offender or, if the data pertaining to such year are not available, during the year preceding such year, less the income tax.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(4) Daily rates shall be calculated to the accuracy of ten cents.

[RT I 2010, 22, 108 – entry into force 01.01.2011]

(5) If at the time of commission of an act, the person is less than eighteen years of age, the court may impose a pecuniary punishment of thirty up to two hundred and fifty daily rates. A pecuniary punishment shall not be imposed on a person of less than eighteen years of age if he or she does not have any independent income.

(6) A pecuniary punishment may be imposed as a supplementary punishment together with imprisonment unless imprisonment has been substituted by community service.

(7) A pecuniary punishment shall not be imposed as a supplementary punishment together with a fine to the extent of assets.

(8) A court may impose a pecuniary punishment of 4000–40,000,000 euros on a legal person, unless otherwise provided in subsection 9 of this section.

[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

(9) In the cases provided in the Special Part of this Code, a court may impose a pecuniary punishment on a legal person, the amount of which is calculated as a percentage of the turnover of the legal person during the financial year immediately preceding the year in which the criminal proceedings were commenced, or in the case the person has operated for less than a year, during the year of commencing the criminal proceedings.

[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

§ 45. Imprisonment

(1) For a criminal offence, the court may impose imprisonment for a term of thirty days to twenty years, or life imprisonment.

(2) Imprisonment for a term of more than ten years or life imprisonment shall not be imposed on a person who at the time of commission of the criminal offence is less than eighteen years of age.

§ 46. Compulsory dissolution of legal person

[Repealed – RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

Subchapter 2

Principal Punishments Imposed for Misdemeanours

§ 47. Fine

(1) For a misdemeanour, a court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings may impose a fine of one or to three hundred fine units. A fine unit is the base amount of a fine and is equal to 8 euros.
[RT I, 29.06.2024, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2025]

(1¹) The amount of a fine imposed or to be imposed as a penalty on a person of less than eighteen years of age at the time of commission of the act is calculated on the basis of a half of the amount of the fine provided in the Special Part of this Code or in another Act as the maximum penalty for a misdemeanour, unless the penalty of a person of less than eighteen years of age is specifically provided by law.
[RT I, 29.06.2024, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2025]

(2) A court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings may impose a fine of 100-400,000 euros on a legal person who commits a misdemeanour.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) [Repealed – RT I 2007, 13, 69 – entry into force 15.03.2007]

(4) The Special Part of this Code or another law may provide for the application of a fine on a different basis and in a different amount from that provided in subsections 1 and 2 of this section, taking into account the specific nature of the regulated area.
[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

§ 48. Detention

For a misdemeanour, a court may impose detention for a term of up to thirty days, and to a person who committed a misdemeanour as a minor for a term of up to ten days.
[RT I, 05.12.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2018]

§ 48¹. Deprivation of driving privileges as principal punishment

(1) A court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings may impose, as a principal punishment, deprivation of driving privileges for up to two years for a misdemeanour relating to violation of safe traffic or of rules of operation of a motor vehicle, aircraft, water craft, tram or rolling stock. Deprivation of driving privileges may not be imposed simultaneously as a principal and supplementary punishment.

(2) A person shall not be deprived of the right to drive a motor vehicle if he or she uses the motor vehicle due to mobility disability.
[RT I 2008, 54, 304 – entry into force 27.12.2008]

[RT I 2005, 40, 311 - entry into force 01.10.2005]

§ 49. Occupational ban

For a criminal offence relating to abuse of professional or official status or violation of official duties, a court may impose, as a supplementary punishment, a ban on employment in a particular office or operation in a particular area of activity for up to three years.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 49¹. Violation of prohibition to engage in enterprise

(1) For fraud, abuse of trust, giving or mediating a bribe, influence peddling, criminal offence against public trust, provision of employment for alien staying in Estonia without legal basis or economic criminal offence, a court may impose, as a supplementary punishment, prohibition to engage in enterprise for the term from one to five years.
[RT I, 29.06.2018, 4 – entry into force 15.07.2018]

(2) A person with respect to whom a court has imposed a prohibition to engage in enterprise shall not act as an undertaking, member of the management bodies of a legal person, liquidator or procurator of a legal person or participate in the management of the legal person in any other manner during the term specified by the court.
[RT I 2008, 52, 288 – entry into force 22.12.2008]

§ 50. Deprivation of driving privileges

(1) Unless otherwise provided for in this Code or another Act, for an offence relating to violation of the safe traffic rules or rules of operation of a motor vehicle, aircraft, water craft, tram or rolling stock, deprivation of driving privileges may be imposed as a supplementary punishment:

[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

- 1) for up to three years by a court in the case of a criminal offence;
- 2) for up to one year by a court or body conducting the extra-judicial proceedings in the case of a misdemeanour in cases provided by the law.

(2) A person shall not be deprived of the right to drive a motor vehicle if he or she uses the motor vehicle due to mobility disability.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) In the cases provided for in the Special Part of this Code, the court shall impose, in the case of a criminal offence, deprivation of driving privileges for a term of three months to up to three years.

[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

§ 51. Deprivation of right to hold weapons or ammunition

For a criminal offence relating to handling or use of weapons or ammunition, a court may deprive the offender, as a supplementary punishment, of the right to acquire, store, supply, convey and carry weapons or ammunition for the term of up to five years.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 52. Deprivation of hunting or fishing rights

For a criminal offence relating to violation of hunting or fishing rights, a court may deprive the offender, as a supplementary punishment, of the hunting and fishing rights for the term of up to three years.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 52¹. Deprivation of right to access state secrets and classified information of foreign states and right to process access state secrets and classified information of foreign states

For a misdemeanour relating to violation of the requirements of the State Secrets and Classified Information of Foreign States Act, a court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings may impose deprivation of right to access state secrets and classified information of foreign states and right to process access state secrets and classified information of foreign states as supplementary punishment on the offender for up to one year.

[RT I 2007, 16, 77 – entry into force 01.01.2008]

§ 52². Prohibition on keeping of animals

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

For commission of a prohibited act against an animal, a court may impose, as a supplementary punishment, prohibition on keeping of any animals or animals of certain species:

- 1) for up to five years in the case of a criminal offence;
- 2) for up to three years in the case of a misdemeanour.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 53. Fine to the extent of assets

(1) If a court convicts a person of a criminal offence and imposes imprisonment for a term of more than three years or life imprisonment, the court may, in the cases provided by law, impose a supplementary punishment according to which the offender is to pay an amount up to the extent of the total value of all the assets of the offender.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) A fine to the extent of assets may be imposed as a supplementary punishment for a criminal offence committed before 1 February 2007.

[RT I 2007, 2, 7 – entry into force 01.02.2007]

§ 54. Expulsion

(1) If a court convicts a citizen of a foreign state of an intentional criminal offence and imposes imprisonment, the court may impose expulsion with prohibition on entry for up to ten years as supplementary punishment on the offender. If the spouse, registered partner or a minor child of the offender lives with him or her in the same family in Estonia on a legal basis, the court shall provide reasons in its judgment for imposition of expulsion.

[RT I, 06.07.2023, 6 – entry into force 01.01.2024]

(2) Expulsion shall not be imposed on a citizen of a foreign state who at the time of commission of the criminal offence was less than eighteen years of age.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) Expulsion with the prohibition on entry for up to ten years may be imposed as supplementary punishment on citizens of the European Union or their family members if the stay of such persons in Estonia poses a threat to public order or national security.

[RT I, 17.12.2015, 3 – entry into force 27.12.2015]

(4) If the offender or his or her family member is a citizen of the European Union and resides in Estonia on the basis of the right of permanent residence, expulsion and prohibition on entry may be applied only in the case the person poses a major threat to public order or a threat to national security. If the offender is a citizen of the European Union who has permanently resided in Estonia for the past ten consecutive years, expulsion and prohibition on entry may be applied only in the case the person poses a threat to national security.

[RT I, 17.12.2015, 3 – entry into force 27.12.2015]

§ 55. Term of supplementary punishment

(1) If a supplementary punishment provided for in §§ 49 to 52² of this Code is imposed together with detention or imprisonment, the supplementary punishment shall extend to the whole term of the principal punishment and additionally to the term determined by the court judgment or the decision of the body conducting extra-judicial proceedings.

[RT I 2007, 23, 119 – entry into force 02.01.2008]

(2) The term for a prohibition on entry supplementing expulsion provided for in § 54 of this Code shall be calculated as of the expulsion of the offender.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

Subchapter 4 Supplementary Punishments for Offences Imposed on Legal Persons

[RT I 2007, 16, 77 - entry into force 01.01.2008]

§ 55¹. Supplementary punishments of legal persons

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

The following supplementary punishments may be imposed on legal persons:

1) deprivation of the right to process state secrets and classified information of foreign states under the conditions provided for in § 52¹ of this Code;

2) prohibition on keeping of animals under the conditions provided for in § 52² of this Code.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

Chapter 4 IMPOSITION OF PUNISHMENT

Subchapter 1 Bases for Imposition of Punishments

§ 56. Basis for punishment

(1) Punishment shall be based on the guilt of the person. In imposition of a punishment, a court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings shall take into consideration the mitigating and aggravating circumstances, the possibility to influence the offender not to commit offences in the future, and the interests of the protection of public order.

[RT I 2003, 83, 557 – entry into force 01.01.2004]

(2) Imprisonment may be imposed only on the condition that the aims of the punishment cannot be achieved by a less onerous punishment. If a section of the Special Part of this Code prescribes, in addition to imprisonment, less onerous punishments, the court shall provide in its judgment the reasons for the imposition of imprisonment.

(3) A minor may be imposed a punishment only in the case it is impossible to influence the minor not to commit offences in the future by sanctions applicable to minors.
[RT I, 05.12.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2018]

§ 57. Mitigating circumstances

(1) Mitigating circumstances are:

- 1) prevention of harmful consequences of the offence, and provision of assistance to the victim immediately after the commission of the offence;
- 2) voluntary compensation for damage;
- 3) appearance for voluntary confession, sincere remorse, or active assistance in detection of the offence;
- 4) commission of the offence due to a difficult personal situation;
- 5) commission of the offence under threat or duress, or due to service, financial or family-related dependent relationship;
- 6) commission of the offence in a highly provoked state caused by unlawful behaviour;
- 7) commission of the offence by a pregnant woman or a person in an advanced age;
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]
- 8) commission of the offence in excess of the limits of self-defence;
- 9) conciliation with the victim.
[RT I 2007, 11, 51 – entry into force 18.02.2007]

(2) Circumstances not specified in subsection 1 of this section may be taken into consideration in imposition of a punishment.

§ 58. Aggravating circumstances

Aggravating circumstances are:

- 1) self-interest or other base motives;
- 2) commission of the offence with peculiar cruelty, or degradation of the victim;
- 3) commission of the offence knowingly against a person who is less than eighteen years of age, pregnant, in an advanced age, in need of assistance or has a severe mental disorder;
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]
- 4) commission of the offence against a person who is in a service or financially dependent relationship with the offender, and against a former or current family member of the offender, against a person who lives with the offender or a person who is otherwise in a family relationship with the offender;
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]
- 5) commission of the offence during a state of emergency or state of war;
- 6) commission of the offence by taking advantage of a public accident or natural disaster;
- 7) commission of the offence in a manner which is dangerous to the public;
- 8) causing of serious consequences;
- 9) commission of the offence in order to facilitate or conceal another offence;
- 10) commission of the offence by a group;
- 11) taking advantage of an official uniform or badge in order to facilitate commission of the offence;
- 12) commission of the offence against a minor with abuse of power or confidence;
- 13) commission of the offence against the person by an adult in the presence of a minor.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 59. Prohibition to repeatedly consider mitigating or aggravating circumstances

The mitigating or aggravating circumstances provided for in §§ 57 and 58 of this Code shall not be considered in imposition of a punishment if they are described by law as the necessary elements of an offence.

§ 60. Mitigation of punishment in cases provided by law

(1) In the cases specified in the General Part of this Code, a court may mitigate the punishment of a person pursuant to the procedure provided for in subsections 2–4 of this section.

(2) The maximum rate of a mitigated punishment shall not exceed two-thirds of the maximum rate of the punishment provided by law.

(3) The minimum rate of a mitigated punishment shall be the minimum rate of the corresponding type of punishment provided for in the General Part of this Code.

(4) If the Special Part of this Code prescribes life imprisonment as a punishment for a criminal offence, imprisonment for a term of three to fifteen years shall be imposed in mitigation of the punishment.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 60¹. Active remorse

A court may apply the provisions of § 60 or release a person from the punishment if the act committed comprises the necessary elements of a completed offence but the person voluntarily abandons further commission of the act or eliminates the risk in any other manner.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 61. Imposition of less onerous punishment than minimum term or rate

(1) Taking into consideration special circumstances, a court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings may impose a less onerous punishment than the minimum term or rate provided by law.

(2) If the minimum term of imprisonment provided for in the Special Part of this Code is at least five years, imprisonment shall not be imposed for a term of less than one year.

§ 62. Imposition of principal and supplementary punishments

One principal punishment and one or several supplementary punishments may be imposed for one offence.

§ 63. Imposition of principal punishment for several offences

(1) If a person commits an act which comprises the necessary elements of several offences, one punishment shall be imposed on the person on the basis of the provision of law which prescribes the most onerous punishment.

(2) If a person commits several acts which contain the necessary elements of several criminal offences and he or she has not been previously punished for any of such offences, a punishment shall be imposed separately for each offence and aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to § 64 of this Code.

(3) If a person commits several acts which contain the necessary elements of several misdemeanours, a punishment shall be imposed separately for each misdemeanour.
[RT I 2002, 56, 350 – entry into force 01.09.2002]

§ 64. Imposition of aggregate punishment

(1) In the case of principal punishments of the same type, the aggregate punishment shall be imposed by increasing the most onerous of the individual punishments imposed or by considering a lesser punishment to be imposed by imposition of the most onerous one.

(2) If one of the principal punishments imposed is a pecuniary punishment, it shall be executed independently, except in the case provided for in subsection 4 of this section.

(3) An aggregate punishment shall not exceed the sum of the individual punishments imposed or the maximum rate of the most onerous punishment provided for in the corresponding section of the Special Part of this Code.

(4) If life imprisonment is one of the punishments imposed, life imprisonment shall be imposed as the aggregate punishment.

(5) Supplementary punishments of different types shall be executed independently.
[RT I 2002, 56, 350 – entry into force 01.09.2002]

§ 65. Subsequent imposition of aggregate punishment

(1) If, after the pronouncement of a conviction, it is ascertained that the offender has committed another criminal offence prior to the pronouncement of the conviction, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the procedure provided for in § 64 of this Code. Punishment served in part or in full pursuant to the previous conviction shall be deducted from the aggregate punishment.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) If an offender commits another criminal offence after the pronouncement of the conviction but before the sentence is served in full, the unserved part of the sentence imposed by the previous judgment shall be added to the punishment imposed for the new offence in accordance with the provisions of 64 (2), (4) and (5) of this Code. In such case, the aggregate punishment shall not exceed the maximum term of the given type of punishment.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) If any of the punishments constituting a set on the basis of subsection 1 of this section has been substituted or the offender has been released on parole, the court shall determine for the second time, after formation of the aggregate punishment, the procedure for the enforcement thereof either by substituting it, releasing the offender on parole or enforcing the aggregate punishment pursuant to the provisions of § 56 of this Code. If any of the punishments constituting the set is unserved actual imprisonment, actual imprisonment shall be imposed as the aggregate punishment.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 66. Serving of sentence in parts

(1) If a court imposes a pecuniary punishment, detention, or imprisonment for a term of up to six months, the court, taking into consideration the situation of the family and the professional activities of the offender and his or her state of health, may order the pecuniary punishment to be paid in instalments or the punishment to be borne in parts. The court shall determine the duration of the imprisonment or detention to be borne consecutively, or the amounts of the instalments of the pecuniary punishment. The duration of imprisonment or detention to be borne consecutively shall be at least two days.

(2) A court or a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings may, with good reason, order a fine payable in instalments.

(3) The term for the execution of a fine payable in instalments or imprisonment or detention to be borne in parts shall not exceed one year.

§ 67. Calculation of terms of punishment

(1) A term of imprisonment shall be calculated in years, months and days.

(2) A term of detention shall be calculated in days. One day of detention corresponds to twenty-four hours.

(3) The term of withdrawal of the right to drive a vehicle imposed as a principal punishment and of supplementary punishments shall be calculated in years and months.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 68. Consideration of provisional custody and detention

(1) Provisional custody, including the time spent in provisional arrest and arrest for surrender, shall be included in the term of a punishment. One day of provisional custody corresponds to one day of imprisonment or three daily rates of a pecuniary punishment.

[RT I 2004, 54, 387 – entry into force 01.07.2004]

(2) If a person is held in custody in the course of misdemeanour proceedings, it shall be included in the term of a punishment. Twenty-four hours of custody correspond to one day of detention or to ten fine units.

Subchapter 2 Substitution of Imprisonment or Detention by Community Service

[RT I 2010, 44, 258 - entry into force 01.01.2012]

§ 69. Community service

(1) If a court imposes detention or imprisonment for a term of up to two years or enforces a conditional prison sentence imposed pursuant to the procedure provided for in §§ 73 or 74 of this Code, the court may substitute it by community service. One day of detention or imprisonment corresponds to one hour of community service which minimum duration is five hours. Detention or imprisonment shall be substituted by community service only with the consent of the offender.

(2) The duration of community service shall not exceed eight hours a day. If an offender performs community service during the time free from his or her other work or studies, the duration of community service shall not exceed four hours a day. An offender shall not be remunerated for community service.

(3) When a court imposes community service, the court shall determine the term for the performance thereof which shall not exceed twenty-four months in the case of criminal offences and twelve months in the case of misdemeanours. A court may suspend the running of the term due to an illness or family situation of the offender or for a period during which the offender is in compulsory military service, alternative service or reserve service. Upon suspension of the term and upon determination of a new term, the court shall take into account the general term of community service prescribed for the respective offence.

(4) When performing community service, an offender shall observe supervisory requirements and perform the obligations imposed on him or her pursuant to the provisions of § 75 of this Code. The hours of community service imposed on an offender may be deemed to be covered to the extent of up to one-fourth by participation in any activities which reduce the risk of commission of a new criminal offence.

[RT I, 19.03.2019, 3 – entry into force 01.07.2019]

(5) Legislation which regulates health protection and occupational health and safety extends to offenders who perform community service. If necessary, the court may, before substituting detention or imprisonment by community service, order the medical examination of the offender in order to ascertain whether the state of health of the offender enables him or her to perform community service.

(6) If an offender evades community service, fails to comply with supervisory requirements or perform the obligations imposed on him or her, the official enforcing the punishment may issue a written notice cautioning him or her or the court may impose additional obligations on the offender in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code, extend the term for the performance of community service, taking into consideration the general term provided for in subsection 3 of this section for performance of community service, or enforce the detention or imprisonment imposed on the offender. In the case of enforcement of detention or imprisonment, the sentence shall be deemed to be served to the extent of the community service performed by the offender, whereas one hour of community service corresponds to one day of detention or imprisonment. In the case of enforcement of detention of less than ten days, the sentence shall be deemed to be served to the extent of the hours of community service performed by the offender in proportion to the detention imposed.

(7) If an offender commits another criminal offence during the performance of community service and is sentenced to imprisonment, the unserved part of the community service imposed on the offender shall be substituted for pursuant to the ratio provided for in subsection 6 of this section. The aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

Subchapter 2¹

Substitution of Imprisonment by Electronic Surveillance or Treatment

[RT I, 15.06.2012, 2 - entry into force 01.06.2013]

§ 69¹. Substitution of imprisonment by electronic surveillance

(1) If a court imposes imprisonment of up to one year, the court may substitute the imprisonment by electronic surveillance. One day of imprisonment corresponds to one day of electronic surveillance. Imprisonment shall be substituted by electronic surveillance only with the consent of the offender.

[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(2) If an offender does not submit to electronic surveillance, fails to comply with supervisory requirements or perform the obligations imposed on him or her, the probation officer may issue a written notice cautioning him or her or the court may enforce the imprisonment substituted. If an offender withdraws his or her consent for application of electronic surveillance prior to expiry of the term of punishment, the court shall enforce the imprisonment substituted.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) If an offender commits another criminal offence after the pronouncement of the conviction but before the sentence is served in full, the unserved part of the sentence imposed by the previous judgment shall be added to the punishment imposed for the new offence in accordance with subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code, whereas the time of electronic surveillance shall not be included in the punishment served.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 69². Substitution of imprisonment by treatment

(1) If imprisonment of six months up to two years is imposed on a person for an act which he or she committed due to a treatable or controllable mental disorder, the court may substitute the imprisonment by treatment.

(2) The provisions of subsection 1 of this section may be applied only as partial substitution in the case of complex treatment of sex offenders.

(3) The provisions of subsection 1 of this section may be applied as a prerequisite for release on parole.

(4) Imprisonment is substituted by treatment only with the person's written consent which he or she can give after all the impacts of the treatment have been explained to him or her.

(5) The term of treatment shall not be shorter than eighteen months or longer than three years.

[RT I, 26.02.2014, 1 – entry into force 08.03.2014]

(6) For the purposes of this Code, treatment is:

1) addiction treatment of drug addicts to a person who committed a criminal offence due to drug addiction;
[RT I, 26.02.2014, 1 – entry into force 08.03.2014]
2) complex treatment of adult sex offenders to a person who committed a criminal offence due to sexual orientation disorder.

(7) The treatment consists of subjection of an offender to in-patient or out-patient treatment which objective is to treat the mental disorder which was the reason for commission of the criminal offence or to control such disorder.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(8) During the treatment, an offender shall observe supervisory requirements and perform the obligations imposed on him or her pursuant to the provisions of § 75 of this Code.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(9) If an offender evades treatment, fails to comply with supervisory requirements or perform the duties imposed on him or her, the probation officer may issue a written notice cautioning him or her or the court may impose additional obligations on him or her in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code and additionally submit the offender to electronic surveillance with his or her consent or enforce the imprisonment imposed on the offender. If an offender withdraws his or her consent for application of treatment prior to the end of the term of treatment or if treatment is suspended with respective prescription of a doctor due to side effects of the treatment or other medical indications, the court shall enforce the imprisonment imposed on the offender.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(10) If an offender commits a new criminal offence during the period of treatment and is sentenced to imprisonment, administration of treatment shall be terminated with regard to him or her and an aggregate punishment shall be imposed on him or her pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(11) Treatment shall be financed pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Health Services Organisation Act.

[RT I, 15.06.2012, 2 – entry into force 01.06.2013]

Subchapter 3

Substitution of Pecuniary Punishment, Fine or Fine to Extent of Assets

§ 70. Substitution of pecuniary punishment by imprisonment, community service or addiction treatment

[RT I, 23.02.2011, 2 – entry into force 05.04.2011]

(1) If an offender fails to pay the amount of pecuniary punishment imposed on him or her, the court shall substitute the punishment by imprisonment or, with the consent of the offender, by community service pursuant to the procedure provided for in § 69 of this Code or addiction treatment of drug addicts provided for in § 69² of this Code.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) Three daily rates of a pecuniary punishment correspond to one day of imprisonment.

(3) In the case of substitution of a pecuniary punishment by imprisonment, the minimum term of the imprisonment shall be ten days.

§ 71. Substitution of fine to extent of assets by imprisonment

(1) If an offender fails to pay the amount of the fine imposed on him or her to the extent of his or her assets, the court shall substitute the fine by imprisonment. Fifty minimum daily rates of a fine to the extent of assets correspond to one day of imprisonment.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) In the case of substitution of a fine to the extent of assets by imprisonment, the minimum term of the imprisonment shall be thirty days and maximum term shall be five years.

§ 72. Substitution of fine by detention or community service

[RT I 2010, 44, 258 – entry into force 01.01.2012]

(1) Where an offender fails to pay a fine imposed on them and unless otherwise provided in subsection 4 of this section, a court substitutes the fine to the extent of the unpaid part thereof by detention or, with the consent of the offender, by community service in accordance with the rules provided in § 69 of this Code.
[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1– entry into force 01.11.2023]

(2) Ten fine units correspond to one day of detention. Where a fine imposed on an offender is up to nine fine units, the fine is deemed to correspond to one day of detention upon substitution of detention by community service.
[RT I, 29.06.2024, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2025]

(3) In the case of substitution of fine by detention, the minimum term of detention shall be one day.

(4) The fine provided in subsection 4 of § 47 of this Code is not substituted.
[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1– entry into force 01.11.2023]

Chapter 5

RELEASE FROM PUNISHMENT

§ 73. Probation

(1) If a court, taking into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of a criminal offence and the personality of the offender, finds that service of the imprisonment imposed for a specified term or payment of the amount of the pecuniary punishment by the offender is unreasonable, the court may order suspension of the sentence on probation in full or in part. Suspension of the sentence may be ordered in full, unless otherwise provided for in the Special Part of this Code. If suspension of the sentence is ordered, the imposed punishment shall not be enforced in full or in part if the offender does not commit a new intentional criminal offence within the period of probation determined by the court, unless otherwise provided for in subsections 4 or 5 of this section.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(2) If the court decides that imprisonment or a pecuniary punishment imposed is not to be executed in part, the court shall determine the part of the imprisonment or pecuniary punishment which is to be borne or paid immediately and such part of the imprisonment or pecuniary punishment the execution of which is conditionally suspended. Duration of the imprisonment to be served immediately by a person who at the time of commission of the criminal offence is less than eighteen years of age is up to 30 days.

(3) Probation shall be ordered for a period of one to five years.

(4) If an offender commits a new criminal offence during the period of probation and is sentenced to imprisonment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code. If the new criminal offence was committed through negligence, the court may order release on probation from serving the aggregate punishment for the second time. If the new criminal offence was committed intentionally, a court may order release on probation from serving the aggregate punishment for the second time with subjection of the offender to electronic surveillance pursuant to the procedure provided for in clause 9 or 10 of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code. In the case of enforcement of sentence of imprisonment, the court may substitute imprisonment by community service pursuant to the procedure provided in § 69 of this Code.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(5) If an offender commits a new criminal offence during the period of probation and is punished by a pecuniary punishment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code. In such case the court may decide not to enforce the punishment imposed for the previous criminal offence and order separate enforcement of the pecuniary punishment imposed for the new offence.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 74. Probation with subjection of offender to supervision of conduct

(1) If a court, taking into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of a criminal offence and the personality of the offender, finds that the service of the imposed imprisonment for a specified term by the offender is unreasonable, the court may order suspension of the sentence on probation. Suspension of the sentence may be ordered in full, unless otherwise provided for in the Special Part of this Code. If suspension of the sentence is ordered, the imposed punishment shall not be enforced in full or in part if the offender does not commit a new criminal offence within the period of probation determined by the court and complies with supervisory requirements and obligations imposed on him or her for the probation period pursuant to § 75 of this Code, unless otherwise provided for in subsections 4–6 of this section.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(2) If the court decides that imposed imprisonment is partially not enforced, the court shall determine the part of the imprisonment to be borne immediately and such part of the imprisonment which is suspended on probation. Duration of the imprisonment to be served immediately by a person who at the time of commission of the criminal offence is less than eighteen years of age shall not exceed 30 days.

(3) Probation shall be imposed for a period of six months to five years.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(4) If, during a period of probation, an offender fails to comply with the supervisory requirements or perform the obligations imposed on him or her or commits a misdemeanour similar to the criminal offence, which was the basis for the punishment, the probation officer may issue a written notice cautioning him or her or the court may impose additional obligations pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code, extend the period of probation by one year or enforce the punishment.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(5) If an offender commits a new criminal offence during the period of probation and is sentenced to imprisonment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code. If the new criminal offence was committed through negligence, the court may order release on probation from serving the aggregate punishment for the second time. If the new criminal offence was committed intentionally, a court may order release on probation from serving the aggregate punishment for the second time with subjection of the offender to electronic surveillance pursuant to the procedure provided for in clause 9 or 10 of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code. In the case of enforcement of sentence of imprisonment, the court may substitute imprisonment by community service pursuant to the procedure provided in § 69 of this Code.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(6) If an offender commits a new criminal offence during the period of probation and is punished by a pecuniary punishment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code. In such case the court may decide not to enforce the punishment imposed for the previous criminal offence and order separate enforcement of the pecuniary punishment imposed for the new offence.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 75. Supervision of conduct

(1) During supervision of conduct, an offender is required to comply with the following supervisory requirements:

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

- 1) to reside in a permanent place of residence determined by the court;
- 2) to report at intervals determined by the probation supervisor at the probation supervision department;
- 3) to submit, in his or her place of residence, to the supervision of the probation officer and provide the probation officer with information relating to the performance of the offender's obligations and his or her means of subsistence;
- 4) to obtain the permission of a probation officer before leaving his or her place of residence within the territory of Estonia for longer than fifteen days;
- 5) to obtain the permission of the probation officer before changing residence, employment or place of study;
- 6) to obtain the permission of a probation officer before leaving the territory of Estonia and staying outside the territory of Estonia.

[RT I, 20.12.2012, 3 – entry into force 01.01.2013]

(2) Taking into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of the criminal offence and the personality of the offender, the court may impose the following obligations on the offender for the period of supervision of conduct:

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

- 1) to remedy the damage caused by the criminal offence within a term determined by the court;
- 2) not to consume alcohol;
- 3) not to hold, carry or use weapons;
- 4) to seek employment, acquire general education or a profession within the term determined by the court;
- 5) to undergo the prescribed treatment if the offender has previously consented to such treatment;
- 6) to perform the maintenance obligation;
- 7) not to stay in places determined by the court or communicate with persons determined by the court;
- 8) to participate in social programmes;

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

- 9) to submit to electronic surveillance if the offender has previously consented to such surveillance;

[RT I 2010, 44, 258 – entry into force 01.01.2011]

- 10) to submit to surveillance of compliance with prohibition on consumption of alcohol by an electronic device, if the offender has previously consented to such surveillance.

[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(3) A court may mitigate or annul the obligations imposed on an offender for the period of supervision of conduct or impose additional obligations on the offender pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(4) If an offender promises to improve conduct and assumes obligations not listed in subsection 2 of this section, the court may approve them as obligations.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(5) Compliance with the supervisory requirements specified in subsection 1 of this section shall be suspended during the time of the serving of a partially enforced imprisonment.

(6) If an offender has complied for at least six months during the period of probation with the supervisory requirements determined for him or her on the basis of subsections 1–4 of this section and performed the obligations imposed on him or her, a court may release the offender from further compliance with the supervisory requirements and performance of the obligations imposed on him or her for the term of supervision of conduct. In such case, the offender shall be obliged to refrain from commission of new criminal offences up to the end of the period of probation.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 75¹. Electronic surveillance

(1) Electronic surveillance is the obligation imposed on an offender for the term determined by the court to submit to monitoring of compliance with restrictions of freedom of movement or prohibition on consumption of narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances or alcohol by an electronic device which permits determination of the location of the offender or consumption of alcohol or narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances. The type of devices of electronic surveillance are chosen by the probation officer.

[RT I, 22.03.2024, 1 - entry into force 01.04.2024]

(2) Prior to application of electronic surveillance, the court shall order medical examination of the offender as necessary in order to verify whether the state of health of the offender allows his or her submission to electronic surveillance.

(3) The court may order electronic surveillance with the term of one to twelve months.

[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(4) The term of electronic surveillance shall begin to run from the date on which the electronic surveillance device is attached to the body of the offender.

(5) A court may extend or shorten the term of electronic surveillance imposed on an offender, taking into account the term provided for in subsection 3 of this section.

[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(6) If an offender withdraws his or her consent for application of electronic surveillance prior to the end of the term of electronic surveillance, the court shall enforce the part of the punishment which was not served.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 76. Release on parole

(1) A court may release an offender convicted in a criminal offence in the second degree or criminal offence in the first degree through negligence on parole, if he or she has actually served:

- 1) at least one-third but not less than four months of the term of the imposed punishment and agrees to the application of the electronic surveillance provided for in clause 9 of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code; or
- 2) at least one-half but not less than four months of the term of the imposed punishment.

(2) A court may release an offender convicted in an intentionally committed criminal offence in the first degree on parole, if he or she has actually served:

- 1) at least one-half but not less than four months of the term of the imposed punishment and agrees to the application of the electronic surveillance provided for in clause 9 of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code; or
- 2) at least two-thirds but not less than four months of the term of the imposed punishment.

(3) An offender shall not be released on parole if the offender has been punished by at least two years of imprisonment and has less than two months of the term of the imposed punishment to serve.

(4) In deciding release on parole, the court shall take into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of the criminal offence, the personality of the offender, his or her previous personal history and conduct during the service of the sentence, including participation in any activities which reduce the risk of commission of the criminal offence or consent to participate in such activities during supervision of conduct, his or her living conditions and the consequences which release on parole may bring about for the offender.

[RT I, 19.03.2019, 3 – entry into force 01.07.2019]

(5) A period of probation shall be determined to the extent of the unserved part of the term of the punishment but for not less than six months. During the period of probation, an offender shall be subjected to supervision of conduct provided for in § 75 of this Code but for not longer than up to twenty-four months.

(6) If an offender is released on probation on the basis of clause 2 of subsection 1 or clause 2 of subsection 2 of this section, the court may impose an additional obligation, with his or her consent, to submit to the electronic surveillance provided by clause 9 of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code.

(7) If an offender fails, during a period of probation, to comply with supervisory requirements, perform the obligations imposed on him or her or fails to submit to electronic surveillance or commits a misdemeanour similar to the criminal offence, which was the basis for the punishment, a probation officer may issue a written notice cautioning him or her or the court may impose additional obligations according to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code, extend the term of supervision of conduct up to the end of the period of probation or enforce the part of the punishment which was not served.
[RT I, 07.07.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2017]

(8) If an offender commits a new intentional criminal offence during a period of probation and is sentenced to imprisonment, the unserved part of the sentence shall be enforced. In such case, the aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 76¹. Release on parole of offender who was minor at time of commission of criminal offence

(1) A court may release on parole an offender who was younger than eighteen years of age at the time of commission of the criminal offence:

1) in the case of a criminal offence in the second degree or a criminal offence in the first degree through negligence if he or she has actually served at least one-third of the term of the imposed punishment but not less than four months;

2) in the case of an intentionally committed criminal offence in the first degree if he or she has actually served at least one-half of the term of the imposed punishment but not less than four months.

(2) A court releases on parole an offender who was younger than eighteen years of age at the time of commission of the criminal offence, in the case of a criminal offence in the second degree or a criminal offence in the first degree through negligence if he or she has actually served at least one-half of the term of the punishment imposed but not less than four months.

(3) The provisions of § 76 of this Code apply to deciding release on parole and imposing supervisory requirements and obligations and failure to comply with these and commission of a new intentional criminal offence during the period of probation.

(4) If a court has enforced, according to subsection 7 of § 76 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the part of the punishment of an offender which was not served, the mandatory release requirement provided for in subsection 2 of this section shall not apply.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 77. Release on parole in case of life imprisonment

(1) If a person has been sentenced to life imprisonment, the court may release the person on parole if the offender has actually served at least twenty-five years of the term of the punishment.
[RT I, 19.03.2019, 3 – entry into force 01.07.2019]

(2) When releasing a person specified in subsection 1 of this section on parole, the provisions of subsection 4 of § 76 of this Code shall be taken into consideration.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) Probation shall be ordered for a period of five to ten years and during at least three years of this probation the offender shall be subjected to supervision of conduct provided for in § 75 of this Code.
[RT I, 19.03.2019, 3 – entry into force 01.07.2019]

(3¹) If an offender fails, during a period of probation, to comply with supervisory requirements, perform the obligations imposed on him or her or fails to submit to electronic surveillance, a probation officer may issue a written notice cautioning him or her or the court may impose additional obligations to the offender according to the provisions of subsection 2 of § 75 of this Code, extend the term of supervision taking into consideration the term provided for in subsection 3 of this section, or enforce the punishment.
[RT I, 19.03.2019, 3 – entry into force 01.07.2019]

(4) If a person commits a new intentional criminal offence during a period of probation, he or she shall be ordered to serve the sentence of life imprisonment.

§ 78. Calculation of period of probation

A period of probation commences to run as of:

- 1) pronouncement of the court decision in the cases provided for in §§ 73 and 74 of this Code, with the exception of the requirements of supervision of conduct provided for in § 75 of this Code which application shall be commenced after the entry into force of the court decision;
- 2) entry into force of the court decision in the cases provided for in §§ 76, 76¹ and 77 of this Code.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 79. Release from punishment due to terminal illness of person

(1) If a person suffers from a terminal illness, the court may release him or her from bearing the punishment. In such case, the court shall take into consideration the circumstances relating to the criminal offence committed, the personality of the offender and the nature of the illness.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(2) If a person is mentally capable at the time he or she commits a criminal offence but, before or after the making of the court judgment, becomes mentally ill or feeble-minded or suffers from another severe mental disorder and the person is incapable of understanding the unlawfulness of his or her act or to act according to such understanding, the court shall release the person from the punishment or the bearing thereof. In such case, the court shall act pursuant to the provisions of § 86 of this Code.

(3) If a person specified in subsections 1 or 2 of this section recovers before the expiry of a limitation period provided for in § 82 of this Code, the court may enforce the punishment or the unserved part thereof.

§ 80. Release from punishment in case person is seriously injured as result of criminal offence

If an offender is seriously injured as a result of committing a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment for a term of up to five years, the court may release the person from the punishment.
[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

Chapter 6 LIMITATION PERIODS

§ 81. Limitation period of offence

(1) No one shall be convicted of or punished for a criminal offence if the following terms have expired between the completion of the criminal offence and the entry into force of the corresponding court judgment:

- 1) ten years in the case of a criminal offence in the first degree;
- 2) five years in the case of a criminal offence in the second degree.

(2) Crimes of aggression, crimes of genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes and criminal offences for which life imprisonment is prescribed do not expire.

(3) A misdemeanour expires after two years have passed between the completion thereof and the entry into force of a judgment on it, unless the law prescribes a limitation period of up to five years.
[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

(4) In the case of an intermittent offence, the limitation period shall be calculated as of the completion of the last act. In the case of a continuous offence, the limitation period shall be calculated as of the termination of the continuous act.

(4¹) The limitation period of a misdemeanour shall be interrupted upon submission of a petition provided for in subsection 1 of § 166¹ of the Code of Misdemeanour Procedure.
[RT I, 26.06.2017, 17 – entry into force 06.07.2017]

(4²) If the limitation period of a misdemeanour is interrupted, the limitation period shall commence again as of submission of a petition provided for in subsection 1 of § 166¹ of the Code of Misdemeanour Procedure. A person shall however not be convicted of or punished for a misdemeanour if the period between the completion of the misdemeanour and the entry into force of the corresponding court judgment is two years longer than the term provided for in subsection 3 of this section.
[RT I, 26.06.2017, 17 – entry into force 06.07.2017]

(5) The limitation period of a criminal offence is interrupted with the performance of the following procedural act in the criminal proceeding:

- 1) application of a preventive measure with regard to the suspect or accused, or seizure of his or her property, or property which is the object of money laundering;
- 2) the prosecution of the accused;
- 3) adjournment of the hearing of a matter in the case the accused fails to appear;
- 4) interrogation of the accused in the court hearing;
- 5) ordering of expert assessment or additional evidence in the court hearing.

(6) If the limitation period of a criminal offence is interrupted, the limitation period shall commence again with the performance of the procedural act provided in subsection 5 of this section. A person shall however not be convicted of or punished for a criminal offence if the period between the completion of the criminal offence and the entry into force of the corresponding court judgment is five years longer than the term provided for in subsection 1 of this section.

(6¹) Specifications for suspension of expiry of limitation periods of criminal offences in connection with immunity of members of the Riigikoguis provided for in § 18¹ of the Status of Members of the Riigikogu Act. [RT I, 22.12.2014, 9 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(7) The limitation period of offence is interrupted:

- 1) in the case a suspect, accused or person subject to proceedings absconds from pre-trial proceedings, extra-judicial proceedings or court, until the person is detained or appears before the body conducting the proceedings;
- 2) upon commencement of criminal proceedings in a matter of an act with elements of a misdemeanour, until the termination of the criminal proceedings;
- 3) in the case of marriage against will, disabling female genital mutilation, illegal termination of pregnancy and criminal offence against sexual self-determination against a person younger than eighteen years of age, until the victim attains eighteen years of age, unless the reason for the criminal proceedings became evident before the victim attained such age.

[RT I, 26.06.2017, 69 – entry into force 06.07.2017]

(8) In the cases provided by clauses 1 and 2 of subsection 7 of this section, the limitation period is not resumed where fifteen years have passed from the completion of the criminal offence. The limitation period for a misdemeanour is not resumed where a period that is one year longer than that provided in subsection 3 of this section has passed from the completion of the misdemeanour.

[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

§ 82. Limitation period for execution of judgment or decision

(1) A judgment shall not be executed if the following terms have expired after the entry into force of the judgment:

- 1) five years from entry into force of a court judgment made in a matter concerning a criminal offence in the first degree;
- 2) three years from entry into force of a court judgment made in a matter concerning a criminal offence in the second degree;
- 3) one year from entry into force of a judgment or decision made with regard to a misdemeanour.

[RT I 2009, 68, 463 – entry into force 01.01.2010]

(2) The limitation period for the execution of a judgment is suspended:

- 1) for the period during which the person evades service or payment of the punishment imposed on him or her;
- 2) for a period of probation imposed on the basis of the provisions of § 73 or 74 of this Code;
- 3) for the period during which the sentence imposed on a person has been ordered to be paid in instalments or served in parts, the enforcement of the sentence has been deferred, or the time limit for enforcement of the sentence has been extended or postponed;

[RT I, 11.03.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.11.2023]

- 4) for the period during which the person is in a foreign state and is not or cannot be extradited.

(2¹) The limitation period for the execution of a judgment shall not hinder the adding of the unserved part of the punishment imposed thereby to the punishment imposed for a new criminal offence on the basis of subsection 2 of § 65 of this Code.

[RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) The limitation period for execution of a conviction does not expire if life imprisonment has been imposed as punishment.

(4) A claim for the payment of a fine enforced shall expire if the fine has not been collected within four years after the entry into force of a decision made in the misdemeanour matter. The limitation period for the enforcement is suspended during the time the debtor spends in a prison or house of detention.

[RT I 2009, 68, 463 – entry into force 01.01.2010]

(5) A claim for payment of an enforced pecuniary punishment or fine to the extent of assets expires if the pecuniary punishment pursuant or fine to the extent of assets has not been collected within seven years after the entry into force of the court judgment made in the criminal matter. The limitation period for the enforcement is suspended during the time the debtor spends in a prison.

[RT I 2009, 68, 463 – entry into force 01.01.2010]

Chapter 7

OTHER SANCTIONS

§ 83. Confiscation of object used to commit offence and direct object of offence

(1) A court may confiscate an object which was used or intended to be used to commit an intentional offence (hereinafter object used to commit offence), if it belongs to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(2) In the cases provided by law, a court may confiscate the substance or object which was the direct object of the commission of an intentional offence, or the substance or object used for preparation of the offence if these belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment and confiscation thereof is not mandatory pursuant to law.

(3) The court may confiscate the objects or substance specified in subsections 1 and 2 of this section if it belongs to a third person at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling and the person:

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

- 1) has, at least through recklessness, aided in the use of the objects or substance for the commission or preparation of the offence,
- 2) has acquired the objects or substance, in full or in the essential part, on account of the offender, as a present or in any other manner for a price which is considerably lower than the normal market price; or
- 3) knew that the objects or substance was transferred to the person in order to avoid confiscation thereof.

(3¹) If the object used to commit an intentional offence or direct object of offence was used by the person on the basis of a contract for use or contract of sale with a reservation on ownership, a court may confiscate the proprietary rights of the person arising from that contract.

[RT I 2008, 54, 304 – entry into force 27.12.2008]

(3²) The court may confiscate the proprietary rights specified in subsection 3¹ of this section if they belong to a third person at the time of the making of the judgment and he or she has, at least through recklessness, aided in the use of the objects or substance for the commission of the offence.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(4) In the absence of the permission necessary for the possession of an object or substance, such object or substance shall be confiscated.

(5) In the cases provided for in subsection 4 of this section, a device, object or substance may be confiscated if the person has committed at least an unlawful act.

(6) In the cases provided for in subsections 1, 2 and 4 of this section, the object used to commit a misdemeanour or the substance or object which was the direct object of a misdemeanour may be confiscated by the body conducting extra-judicial proceedings prescribed by law.

[RT I 2007, 2, 7 – entry into force 01.02.2007]

§ 83¹. Confiscation of assets acquired through offence

(1) A court shall confiscate of the assets acquired through an offence object if these belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling.

(1¹) For the purposes of this section, assets acquired by an offence are the assets directly acquired by an offence and anything acquired for account of these assets.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(1²) If any assets acquired by an offence are mixed with other assets, these assets are assets partially acquired by an offence. Assets partially acquired by an offence shall be deemed to be the assets acquired by an offence to the extent provided for in subsection 1¹ of this section and the confiscation thereof shall be replaced pursuant to the procedure provided for in § 84 of this Code.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(2) The court shall impose subsections 1–1² of this section to the assets which belong to a third person at the time of making the judgment, if:

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

- 1) these were acquired, in full or in the essential part, on account of the offender, as a present or in any other manner for a price which is considerably lower than the normal market price; or
- 2) the third person knew that the assets were transferred to the person in order to avoid confiscation.

(3) The court may decide not to confiscate, in part or in full, property acquired through offence if, taking account of the circumstances of the offence or the situation of the person, confiscation would be unreasonably burdensome or if the value of the assets is disproportionately small in comparison to the costs of storage, transfer or destruction of the property. The court shall decrease the amount of the property or assets to be confiscated by the amount of the object of a satisfied civil action or proof of claim in public law.

[RT I, 06.01.2016, 5 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 83². Extended confiscation of assets acquired through criminal offence

(1) If a court convicts a person of a criminal offence, the court may, in the cases provided for in this Code, confiscate a part or all of the criminal offender's assets if these belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment, and if the nature of the criminal offence, the difference between the legal income and financial situation, expenses or the of living of the person or another fact gives reason to presume that the person has acquired the assets through commission of the criminal offence or for account of these assets (hereinafter assets acquired by criminal offence). Confiscation is not applied to assets with regard to which the person certifies that such assets were not acquired by a criminal offence.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(1¹) If any assets acquired by a criminal offence are mixed with other assets, these assets are assets partially acquired by a criminal offence. Assets partially acquired by a criminal offence shall be deemed to be the assets acquired by a criminal offence to the extent provided for in the first sentence of subsection 1 of this section and the confiscation thereof shall be replaced pursuant to the procedure provided for in § 84 of this Code.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(2) The court may impose subsections 1 and 1¹ of this section to the assets which belong to a third person at the time of making the judgment, if:

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

- 1) these were acquired, in full or in the essential part, on account of the offender, as a present or in any other manner for a price which is considerably lower than the normal market price; or
- 2) the third person knew that the assets were transferred to the person in order to avoid confiscation.

[RT I 2007, 2, 7 – entry into force 01.02.2007]

(3) Confiscation shall not be applied to assets of a third party which have been acquired:

- 1) earlier than ten years as of the commission of a criminal offence in the first degree, or
- 2) earlier than five years as of the commission of a criminal offence in the second degree.

[RT I, 26.02.2014, 1 – entry into force 08.03.2014]

(4) Upon extended confiscation of assets acquired through criminal offence, the court shall take account of the provisions of subsection 3 of § 83¹ of this Code.

[RT I 2007, 2, 7 – entry into force 01.02.2007]

§ 84. Substitution of confiscation

If the assets acquired by an offence in the meaning of § 83¹ of this Code or assets acquired by a criminal offence in the meaning of § 83² of this Code, instrument by which a criminal offence was committed or direct object of a criminal offence have been transferred, consumed or the confiscation thereof is impossible or unreasonable for another reason, the court may order payment of an amount which corresponds to the value of the assets subject to confiscation.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

§ 85. Effect of confiscation

(1) Confiscated objects shall be transferred into state ownership or, in the cases provided for in an international agreement, shall be returned.

(2) In the case of confiscation, the rights of third persons remain in force. The state shall pay compensation to third persons, except in the cases provided for in subsections 3, 3² and 4 of § 83, subsection 2 of § 83¹ and subsection 2 of § 83² of this Code.

[RT I, 31.12.2016, 2 – entry into force 10.01.2017]

(3) Before entry into force, the decision of a body conducting extra-judicial proceedings or court concerning confiscation has the effect of a restraint on disposition.

[RT I, 26.02.2014, 1 – entry into force 08.03.2014]

§ 86. Coercive psychiatric treatment

(1) If, at the time of commission of an unlawful act, the person lacks capacity or if he or she, after the making of the court judgment but before the service of the full sentence, becomes mentally ill or feeble-minded or suffers from any other severe mental disorder, or if it is established during preliminary investigation or the court hearing of the matter that the person suffers from one of the aforementioned conditions and therefore his or her mental state at the time of commission of the unlawful act cannot be ascertained and he or she poses danger to himself or herself and to the society due to his or her unlawful act and mental state and is in need of treatment, the court shall order coercive psychiatric treatment of the person.
[RT I, 05.07.2013, 2 – entry into force 15.07.2013]

(1¹) [Repealed – RT I, 26.06.2017, 69 – entry into force 06.07.2017]

(1²) Coercive psychiatric treatment may be administered in the form of out-patient treatment if the person does not pose danger to himself or herself and the society upon subjection to coercive psychiatric treatment and it is likely that the person adheres to the treatment regime.
[RT I, 23.02.2011, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2011]

(2) The treatment specified in subsection 1 of this section shall be provided by a health care provider holding an activity licence for coercive psychiatric treatment.
[RT I, 23.02.2011, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2011]

(3) Coercive psychiatric treatment shall be applied until the person recovers or ceases to pose danger. Termination of a treatment shall be ordered by the court.

(3¹) [Repealed – RT I, 05.07.2013, 2 – entry into force 15.07.2013]

(4) If a punishment is imposed on a person after coercive psychiatric treatment, the period of coercive psychiatric in-patient treatment shall be included in the term of the punishment. One day of day care coercive in-patient treatment corresponds to one day of imprisonment.
[RT I, 05.07.2013, 2 – entry into force 15.07.2013]

§ 87. Sanctions applicable to minors and young adults

[RT I, 05.12.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2018]

(1) A court may apply the following sanctions on persons who are at least fourteen but less than eighteen years old and have committed a crime and whose level of moral and mental development and ability to understand the unlawfulness of their acts or to act according to such understanding is limited:

- 1) admonition;
- 2) social program;
- 3) indemnification and remedy for damage caused by the criminal offence;
- 4) addiction treatment or another treatment;
- 5) mediation service;

[RT I, 06.01.2023, 1 – entry into force 01.04.2023]

- 6) subjection to supervision of conduct pursuant to the provisions of § 75 of this Code;
- 7) 5-60 hours of community service;
- 8) Restriction of freedom of movement, as appropriate together with submission to electronic surveillance pursuant to the provisions of § 75¹ of this Code;
- 9) placement in closed children's institutions in compliance with the principles; of placement in closed children's institutions provided for in the Social Welfare Acts;
- 10) any other obligation voluntarily assumed by the relevant person.

(2) A court may apply the following sanctions on persons who are at least fourteen but less than eighteen years old and who have committed a misdemeanour and whose level of moral and mental development and ability to understand the unlawfulness of their acts or to act according to such understanding is limited:

- 1) admonition;
- 2) social program;
- 3) indemnification and remedy for damage caused by the misdemeanour;
- 4) addiction treatment or another treatment;
